

DIFC Wills: Securing Your Legacy in the UAE

For expatriates in the UAE, DIFC Wills offer a way to ensure assets pass to chosen beneficiaries with freedom to testate. This presentation explores the importance and types of DIFC Wills.

SHALLONCSP

Why DIFC Wills Matter

1 Expat Population

Over 80% of UAE's population are expatriates, mostly in Dubai and Abu Dhabi.

2 Asset Distribution

Without a valid Will, non-Muslim assets are distributed according to Sharia law.

3 Joint Assets

Joint assets don't automatically pass to survivors.

4 Child Guardianship

Mothers aren't automatic guardians of children if the father dies.

Types of DIFC Wills

Guardianship Will

Appoints guardians for your children.

Property Will

Covers up to five UAE properties.

Business Owners Will

For up to 5 UAE company shareholdings.

Financial Assets Will

Includes up to ten UAE bank accounts.
